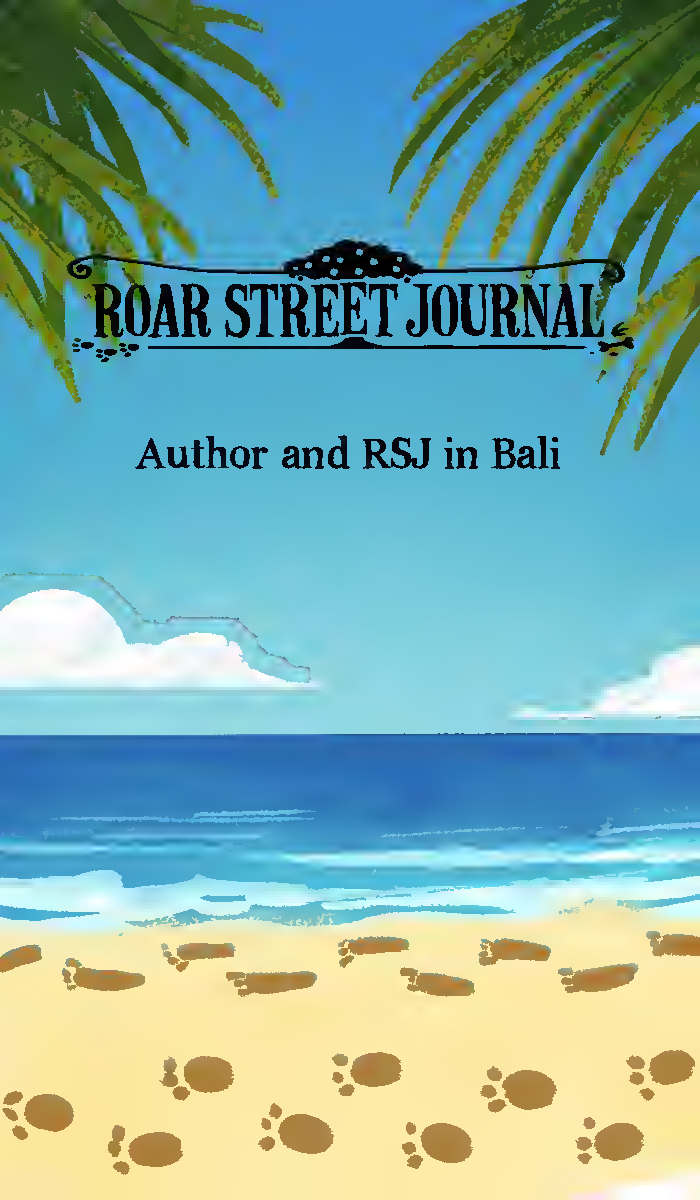
ROAR STREET JOURNAL



Hi everyone! I'm back from holiday!
I'm both relaxed and tired

I used to record my trips in sketchbooks, but this time it's too busy...

so I'll recap it in the RSJ comic!

VISUAL DIARY of

BONNIE & RSJ in

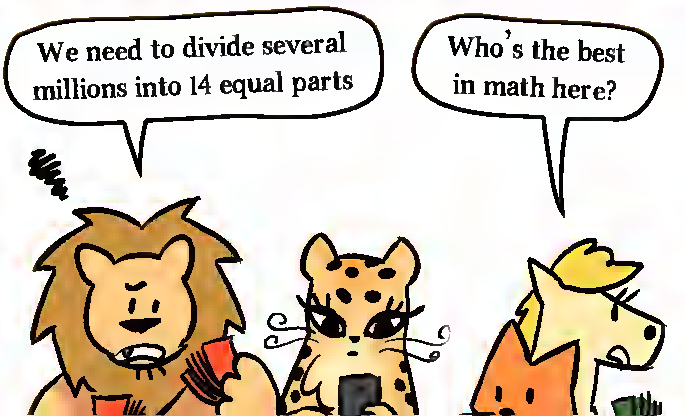
BALI

(in parallel universe)

This is actually a destination wedding trip which my guy and I attend his friend's wedding in Bali.

The Indonesian Rupiah has many zeros.

CURRENCY EXCHANGE



I'm a millionaire!
100000
100000

There was a room party at night and I'm amazed how people can stay up so late.

Where's Master Elephunk and Allie?
They went to sleep. Our bed would collapse if they were here...

This is my first time attending a wedding from morning till night, the weather was perfect and it was a great experience

Surprisingly, the Indonesian staff can speak fluent Mandarin.

He's stuck!
hahaha

In the evening, we had a feast on the lawn.

We can just pretend it's our own wedding!

Guys, there's a wedding banquet down there!
The live music is great.
The rooms on this side will be so noisy…

DAY 3

We had Balinese message (it was our first time) to clear away the tiredness from previous days.

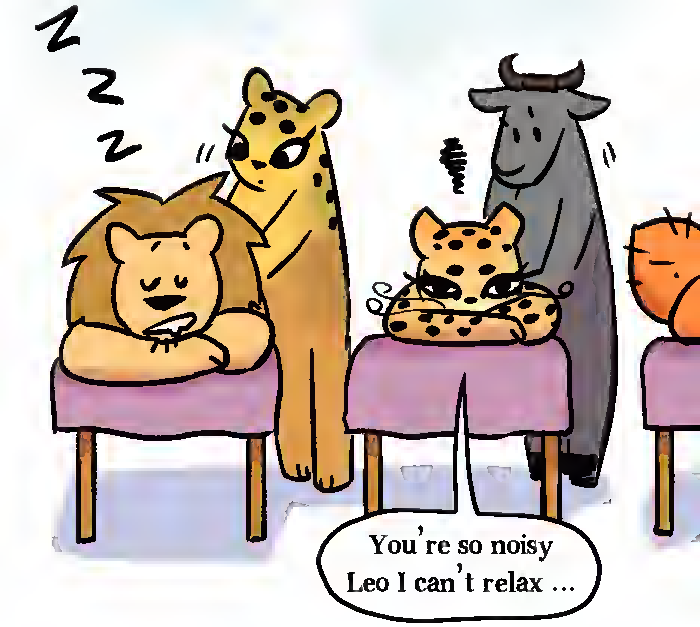
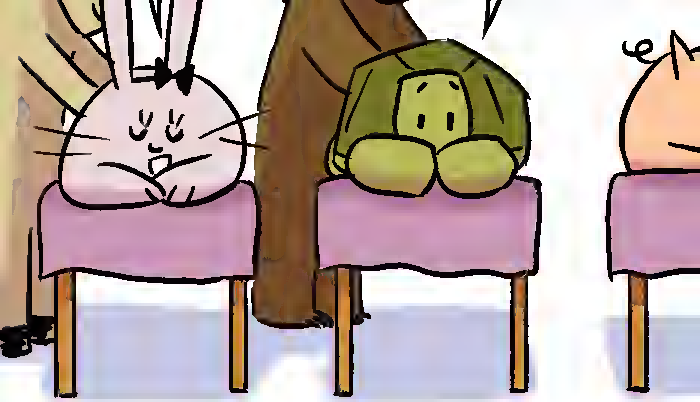
It was so relaxing that I fell asleep.

Balinese message for 14 please!
We don't have so many beds...



Z Z Z
You're so noisy Leo I can't relax ...

This feels so good!
I can't feel anything...



DAY 4

We joined a boat tour and played some water sports.

Also a whole new experience for me!

I'm Mooana!
No,
I'm Mooana!

Alright, you'll both be Mooana.

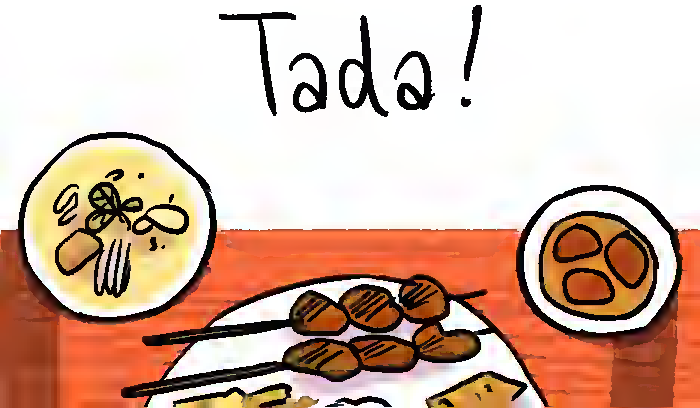
Oh hello Dory

WooHoo

Hold on tight!!

On the last day, we went to a cooking class and learned to make some Indonesian dishes.

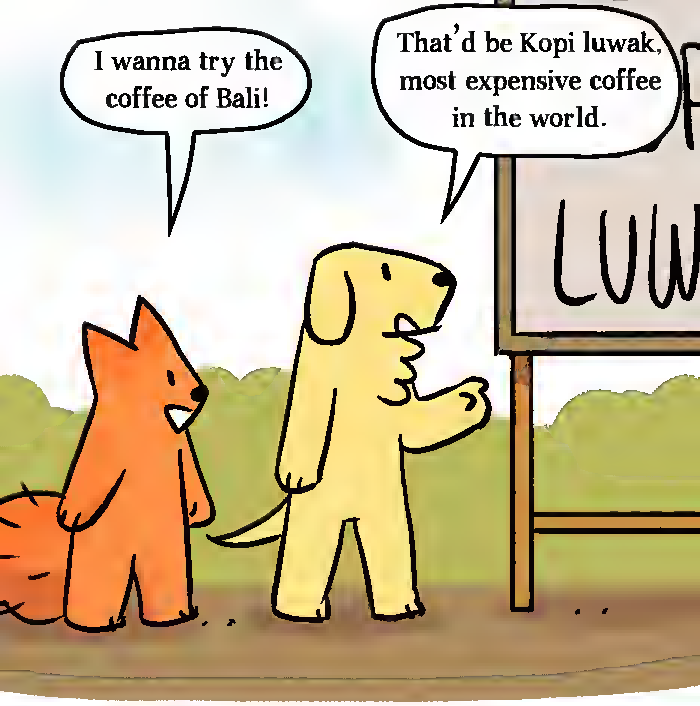
The peanut sauce smells so good
The yellow paste smells so good



Tada!

Indonesian 7-course menu

RSJ Indonesian fans should recognize these!



I wanna try the coffee of Bali!
That'd be Kopi luwak, most expensive coffee in the world.
LUW

Kopi luwak is also known an civet coffee, made of coffee beans harvested from the poop of the animal "Luwak", who eats ripe coffee cherries.

We just collect them from our own poop.
All our staff are Luwaks and we eat a healthy diet

I can't believe I drank someone's poop...
although it tasted good
If I eat coffee cherries, maybe I can produce "Fox coffee"!

Due to growing numbers of intensive civet "farms" that produce kopi luwak from force-feeding, I only bought regular coffee beans.

These are the highlights of my trip in Bali!
It's a wonderful place and I'd love to visit again!

Last but not least, some not-so-wonderful but even more "exciting" things in the trip...

I was drowsy from anti-seasick pills and I slipped

I had a car crash on the highway to the airport
(luckily, there was no serious injury)

The return flight was delayed to the next morning
(luckily, we received hotel accomodation)

Breakfast at 3am, flight at 6am

I'm thankful that everything was safe in the end, so I can continue to draw RSJ after I came back!
